To Miss Katy D.

One charming little Katy is the reigning Queen of night,
Her quiet mein and modest grace, are shining orbs of light.
As the fair white rose of spring, delights us to behold,
So doth this bud of promise her beauty's thus unfold.

Katy, may thy days be ever sunshine, thy path with garlands strewn;
May discords never mar thy joys, nor clouds o'er cast thy home;
But thy sparkling eye continue in loveliness to shine,
And happiness without alloy, speak from thy beaming eyes.

As ripples o'er the water expand from shore to shore,
Thus will the beauties of thy mind develop more and more.
As the gentle breeze of Summer is welcomed o'er the sea,
Thou art thus endeared by friendly ties which ever welcome thee.

Let thy mind soar like the Eagle, to a proud and lofty height.
Keeping Faith, Hope and Charity as guiding stars in sight;
This world hath many cares, fraught with troubles and strife,
But thy daily walks in wisdom's path bespeak a happy life.

Americus.

Mr. Editor:—I observe in your last issue that your correspondent "Americus" has, I think, wantonly attacked Maj. General Hancock, for carrying out instructions of his superior in office of rank, which he was obliged to do as a good officer of the United States Army.

"Americus" invites discussion on the merits of this distinguished man as to his availability for the high office of Presidency, and unmeasureably attacks him for issuing an order, which was obligatory upon him to do, as a good officer of the army, because he was there in the army to obey all behests of the commander-in-chief, and which he did do faithfully, cautiously, and I may say successfully, as he will fulfill the duties of the high office of President of the United States, in the event of his nomination and election to the highest office on earth, and the most responsible in the gift of the American people.

If the order of General Hancock, published at the request of "Americus" in your last Saturday's issue, argues anything, it argues with a manly force, that Major General W. S. Hancock will make a good President, he will obey the people, whose servant he will be at all hazzard, and as he obeyed his superior officer in rank (but, Mr. Editor, superior in nothing else,) and issued the order for the arrest of the greatest felon in the world's history—the man who died his hands in the nations blood, the foul murderer of the chief of this great land of America—the people's President—he who twice were constitunally elected to guide the helm of State, by the voluntary suffrages of his countryman was slain by a monster, and General Hancock, like all good men and subordinates, issues his order at the behest of his superior in rank, for the apprehension of him that tried to take the life of the nation by cowardly murdering Mr. Lincoln; and now, after the lapse of seven years, for this "Americus" to throw down the guantlet to discuss the availability of General Hancock for the Presidency, and hinges his prejudice upon the simple order for the arrest of the foul murderer, such is simply ridiculous; and for him, "Americus," to attempt to malign and bespatter the fair name of General Hancock, allow me to say that I don't feel any good will grow out of any discussion as regards availability, of the many Statesmen who are prominent before the country for this high office of President, and I am sure our good people at Dover to-day will send gentlemen to Baltimore to nominate a President for the people of this broad land, that will be fully competent to guard our interest and shield us from the blasted inklings of "Americus," a man if he be, if not a boy, whose mother should take charge of, and keep him in door, or send him across the broad Atlantic in a log vessel.

"Watchman, what of the night;" the clouds may be ominous; the political horizon shaded by "Americus"—but with our Biggs next November we'll march to victory in little Delaware, and the old Keystone with her Buckalew will follow suit, and the Empire too, with her gallant Hoffman will crowd in, alongside "Maryland, My Maryland;" and with one shout of the American people from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Gulf of Mexico to the St. Lawrence, we'll elevate that gallant soldier, that pure honest Statesman, Major General W. S. Hancock to the Presidential chair—who knows no North, no South, no East, no West—but the gentle balsam of them, a proud people, he'll shed, and multiplier the blessings of a good government to all alike. C.

The Philadelphia Post for Greeley.

The active and influential Philadelphia Bulletin, which has heretofore stood out for Grant and his party, came out the day after Grant's nomination with a double leaded leader, in which it announces that it cannot support Grant. It says:—

Our choice is Horace Greeley. It has not been made in haste. Against hope [illegible] of the Philadelphia Press, giving to the benefit [illegible] might respect the [illegible] party [illegible] and independent [illegible] for the [illegible] which [illegible] do not believe him fit to be President of United States. He was originally elected as a political necessity, as a military hero, and the nation took on trust the assurances of his civil capacity. Those assurances have not been justified. The very first act of Grant was an indication of his ignorance of what a President should be, when he asked the Senate to repeal a law that he might appoint a personal favorite to the Cabinet. His whole administration has been conducted in a spirit of aggression, and not of obedience. The attempt to annex San Domingo was arbitrary and defiant, and only abandoned when the indignation of the people became too great to be disregarded. But these and other actions were pardoned in Grant because the people still had faith in his official integrity, and attributed these errors to his experience and his habits of military command.

Supplementary Enforcement Bill.

By a dastardly trick in the Senate, and a shameless ruling on the part of Senator Anthony, who occupied the chair, the Supplementary Enforcement bill, extending the provisions of the bill over every voting precinct throughout the United States, was passed by the Senate as an amendment to the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill. The latter bill, because of its obnoxious amendment, was defeated by the Democrats in the House, supported by some of the Liberal Republicans. A committee of conference was ordered, which resulted in a modification of the Supplementary Election bill, so as to provide:

"That in any county or parish in any Congressional district, whenever ten citizens in good standing shall make known to the Judge of the United States Circuit Court their desire to have the registration or election guarded and scrutinized, the Judge shall appoint ten citizens of the election district or voting precinct, of different political parties, as Supervisors of Election. They are not to have any compensation or authority to make arrests, or to perform other duties except to be in the immediate presence of the officers holding the election, and to witness all the proceedings, including the counting of votes and the making the return thereof.

Thus modified, this extension of the Bayonet Election bill passed the House yesterday evening by a strict party vote, and being accepted by the Senate, Congress, stained with this last infamous act, adjourned sine die.—Baltimore Gazette, 11th inst.

The Democratic State Conventions of Indiana, South Carolina and Vermont have met, and much interest attached to their proceedings. Delegates to the National Convention at Baltimore were duly appointed and resolutions adopted endorsing the Cincinnati platform and nominations, and favoring union with all who hold its principles.

EXCLUSIVE RIGHT.

Having the exclusive right to sell the

WORDEN & EVANS Stave Peach Basket, FOR NEW CASTLE COUNTY,

I can offer great inducements to those who buy now—and would say to those who postpone it, I will be glad to sell to them when they get ready to buy, but will have to make them pay well for being slow. This basket is undoubtedly the handsomest, cheapest and best basket ever made on this Peninsula, and in a talk with some of our oldest and largest Peach Growers a few days ago, they told me they believed it to be the best basket to sell peaches in, and said they intended to use nothing else. I can prove that nice peaches, packed in nice, clean, new, even sized baskets, will bring enough more over and above what they would in dirty, uneven and unsightly baskets, to more than make it pay to burn the old baskets, and buy new—especially in a season like this, when peaches will probably be high. Our Commission men tell us to have our baskets the right size, and bright and pretty, and they can always get enough excess to pay for the package. Buy early and cheap, and save money. Give me good paper, and I will not be so bold as to ask for cash. I offer you now just what has been needed for a long time, a cheap and handsome basket.

J. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists and Gen. Ag'ts, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 & 34 Commerce St., N. Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

They are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.
